

Dreams Are Real

Tinashe

Sky goes blue
Love flows through
And how you feel
Dreams are

My nigga, wake up feelin' blessed up
You gon' get these bands, you gon' get these checks up
Made it under pressure
You fold under
Today's a brand new day
Old habits die hard, but we'll find another way
Laid up right next to me and everything is straight
Gon' get left behind if you choose to stay the same
Cause the

Sky goes blue
Love flows through
And how you feel
Dreams are real
Dreams are real
Dreams are

Got my mind in the zone
Ain't no real one too real to do the shit that you want
You ain't know what I'm on
You ain't on the level I'm on
I was on the road traveling
They can't find me, they can't find
I was on the road traveling
They can't find me
So get up right next to me and everything is straight
Gon' get left behind if you choose to stay the same
I always remember

Sky goes blue
Love flows through
And how you feel
Dreams are real
Dreams are real
Dreams are

What you waiting on?
Let 'em know, know, let 'em know, know
