Kids games, kiss chase, just a quick fling
Now I'm hoping you never go missing
Now I'm telling you, you can hold this ring, watch how it glistens

It was done as quick as the wind blows
Didn't think I would ever be involved
So I even wrote a song called 'don't go'
Now its just you and me on a love row

Dappy like dino us two tip toes duck dive get low
And now I care less about who knows
Now we're deep in way past intro dappy explain yo

See never did I think a boy like me would be in need
When all I really wanted was to have some fun
Now I'm losing my head, I'm telling you one thing
You're number one

See I don't understand how you're number one
When it was just a thing before now, you're the one
See all I did was blink twice, from my homie to my only

Live for the moment, left it all open

And now I'm stating, see I never saw this in my daydream
Its really you that I'm fully rating
And the days here no more waiting
