

Chilitetime

Tindersticks

Need to find a way
Find another time
There's nothing I could say
To give her peace of mind

Need to find the words
Need to find a way
But only those
With nothing to say

Can look into her eyes
And not turn away
For only those
Have nothing to say

I can see them now... Come home again
I can find the words... Still I'm lost here
But I turn away... Nothing stays the same
With nothing to say

She has my love... Can't hide this feeling
She needs something more
And the time is mine... Running through my mind
Nothing to say... Still I can't believe

I'm here
I got this feeling now
It'll never stay long
It'll never stay long
I'm here
No matter how I try
I can never forget
The reasons why

It's that fear again
It's coming like a train
Every time I believe
It starts bearing down
Leaves nothing to say
There's nothing to tell that I don't know    Come closer again
That hurt the feeling of love and
I don't know why I feel... Come running from my mind
You took it all away... That's the way it's always been

I'm here
I've got that feeling now
But it'll never stay long
It'll never stay long
I'm here
No matter how hard I try
I can never forget
The reasons why

You say you got love
Got a love to set you free
I can feel it, darling
It runs all over me

I got a smile that says I'm feeling good
You know I'm feeling good

I'm here
I got this feeling now
I'm here

I'm here
I got this feeling now... Come home again
But it'll never stay long... Still I'm lost here
It'll never stay long... Nothing stays the same
I'm here
No matter how hard I try... Can't hide this feeling
I can never forget... Come running through my mind
The reasons why... Still I couldn't believe

And I could be gone another day... Come into me
I could turn round and then walk away... Come to me come to me
I don't have to go
You can make me stay... Yes I understand
There's nothing to say that you don't know.. Come closer to me

That hurt my feelings, loving
I don't know why it stays... Go running from my mind
You took it all away... That's the way it's always been
And I know that I am leaving... Touch the feeling
I know the place you were heading... Can't stop here
Ain't there no more... That's the way it's always been
I took it all away... Always stays the same

I'm here
I got this feeling now
But it'll never stay long... Coming round again
It'll never stay long... Gonna break apart
I'm here
No matter how I try... Can't hide this feeling
I can never forget... Running through my mind
Forget... Still I can't believe

Come in to me
Come closer baby come
Yes I understand
Come closer
Come into me

Go running from my mind
That's the way it's always been
Nothing stays the same
It's hard again
Your lips apart
