

Fast One

Tindersticks

Some kind of machine has been hollowed out inside me
Don't know what I became or what I've left behind
See I don't remember when

Something plain about a girl brought me back here again
Stumbled round her house tonight
I could give her a call

Stumbled over the kerbstone on the way to her door
And I squandered her love
It's the biggest kick I ever got
Now I squandered her love

Nothing else hits the spot
Everybody's perfect and yet everybody's away
And everybody's got pictures that they can't contain

Yet I squandered your love
It hangs there in my mind
It's an ugly thing I can't leave behind Jesus
