

I wanna twist your skin
I want to feel it
Just how flexible it is
Maybe someday I will eventually know
Maybe someday, maybe someday

It's not as easy as it seems
It's not as easy as it seems
It's not as easy as it seems

I know it's hard to let go, I know it's hard to let go
A certain standard you've created and I've fallen below
I know it's hard to let go, I know it's hard to let go
A certain level you've created and how to reach it I don't know

I hope you never let our love descend
Can you please promise me that we will always be friends
Cause I
I need this, I need you
And if you ever want to know
What it's like to be alone
Just ask me

I'm the example of a lost human being
Maybe what moved you is what's moving me
"Time heals all wounds" sounds so confusing
Maybe what moved you is what's moving me

It's the littlest things
It's the littlest things

I won't forget the day
We took off our clothes in the rain
Danced until the morning came
But the memory remains

You were drenched down to the bone
I was so cold yet so warm
A final frail hug on this plateau
Seconds before you had to go

You were drenched down to the bone
I was so cold yet so warm
We went inside and dried out the night
Well everything is gone but the memory remains
The memory remains
The memory remains
