

Darker shades never looked so bright
I can't describe this feeling in my stomach
My eyelids have a solid lock
To see exactly what is going on
Around me, around us
That's okay
Problems that I tend to face
What gets me out
Makes me want to stay
And that's okay
That's okay

It's safe to say it's all ironic
I am building a coffin for a living (it's safe to say)

I know you've pushed me to keep my head held high
But it only feels right when I look down
Cause the clouds confuse me
I want to believe that I'm okay on my two feet
I've made mistakes and now I'm making my own bed

Please let me sleep (it's safe to say)
Please let me sleep (it's safe to say)
I will feel better in the morning

I don't want to, I don't want to
I don't want to let you know that I tend to slip at moments where (I don't want to)
I need a grip and have to focus (I don't want to)
Maybe it's meant to be (I don't want to let you know that)

I just want to have you slow down, slow down

Slow down for me

I just want to have you slow down
Listen to the message
I'm trying to tell you that
Maybe everything is meant to be
Maybe everything is meant to be
Volumes must lower since silence is gold
Importance like marrow inside of your bones
Swimming in circles is all that I know
Well I'm a lost minnow with nowhere to go

Maybe everything is meant to be
Maybe everything is meant to be
I'm a lost minnow with nowhere to go
The water, the loneliness is my home
