

Hold Her Tight

Titiyo

He feels emotions flow
The sun is rising slow
And makes her blue eyes glow
He just wants her to know

Things around him have been a mess
She cured his sickness
And I guess what he feels now
Scares her somehow

But I know she'll be all right
If he could shut up tonight
And just hold her tight

This is a place for ends
Where it all begins again
And what he's about to say
Scares her in a way

But I know she'll be all right
If he could shut up tonight
And just hold her tight
