

Raving Hearts

To/Die/For

How can I exist in the same
World with you my brightness
-loving you-keeping you
Deep in my darkness

There's something in my chest
To which thy light bring no rest
In silence my heart raves
Read the pain from my face

As the day and the we are
But love's unconditional
Shadows in my heart
And innocent-that's what you are

There's something in your chest
To which my darkness bring no rest
In silence your heart raves
I see that pain on your face
