

Wolves

To Kill a King

Pride before a fall
You tankard in the darkness
You're just sitting in a bar, just singing in a bar
Pride will keep you warm
Wear it like an overcoat so safe from harm
So safe from harm

Wolves will keep you warm
If you convince yourself you're one
Wolves will keep you warm
If you convince yourself you're one

Take it like a man
Arm yourself with apathy
They'll understand, you know they'll understand
You can take it all
Dress yourself in parody
You'll look the part, at least you'll look the part

Wolves will keep you warm
If you convince yourself you're one
Wolves will keep you warm
If you convince yourself you're one

Wolves will keep you warm

Wolves will keep you warm
If you convince yourself you're one
Wolves will keep you warm
If you convince yourself you're one

Wolves will keep you