

Animals

Toadies

Tomorrow the sun will rise
And I'll see it with sober eyes
But all I really want tonight is you
You know, love is a magic trick
Fools the eyes and drives the hips
But it's crazy, the shit it gets you through

Cause I'm an animal looking for a home
And I don't want to spend the night alone
So tell me lover, what don't you want to do
And I'll lay my heart wide open
So lover don't you let me down
Tonight we're just two animals

The moon is high, but it's bright as day
I can't think of a thing to say
And time is slipping by, sliding away
You know love is a sneaky bitch
Make you happy or make you sick
Make you say things you never thought you'd say

We're all animals looking for a home
Nobody wants to spend the night alone
And I don't want to see the cold hard light of day
So I'll lay my heart wide open
So lover don't you let me down
Tonight we're just two animals
