

She's so

Tobias Regner

Did I forget about the simple rule of life
You pay a price for all you your choices
Well I've learned my lesson
Looking from the other side

I thought that I was through
Don't know who's fooling who cause

She' so unforgettable
She's so un-erasable
It kills me slowly not to be around her
She's so unforgivable
And if I never understood
It hits me know
She's so damn good

I talk myself into that bullshit all the time
At least it made me so much wiser
I tell my friends I really got her off my mind

Did I say that I was through ?
Don't know who's fooling who cause

She' so unforgettable
She's so un-erasable
It kills me slowly not to be around her
She's so unforgivable
And if I never understood
It hits me know
She's so damn good

Wish what I feel
Could be for real
Not just a one way cry
That don't seem to fly
