

Knock Yourself Out

Toby Keith

If you wanna go back to him, baby get up and go
I'm tired of being a clown, caught up in your sideshow
Night after night, it never ends
It's like heavyweight fight, nobody wins
I'm throwing in the towel, enough is enough

Knock yourself out, break me in two
You've gotta go do what you've gotta do
I gave you my best shot, but you didn't fall
Head over heels, in love after all
I don't wanna hear no more, baby there's the door
There nothing left to fight about
Knock yourself out

Let's not pull any punches while we're standing here toe to toe
If you're gonna leave me here baby, go on, go

Knock yourself out, break me in two
You've gotta go do what you've gotta do
I gave you my best shot, but you didn't fall
Head over heels, in love after all
I don't wanna hear no more, baby there's the door
Knock yourself out

Oh, knock yourself out

If you wanna go back to him, baby get up and go
