I gave up on cigarettes 'Til today I ain't touched one yet But tonight I think I'm gonna burn the whole pack I laid off ninety proof, ain't had a drop in years and that's t he truth But tonight when I light the first one I'm gonna open up the Ja ck She ain't hooked on me no more She ain't hooked on me no more The one thing that always hurt her the most Is the one thing she finally guit fightin' for She ain't hooked on me no more She ain't hooked on me no more I'm pickin' up all my bad habits again She's lettin' one go For years she had it real bad, I was the only addiction she eve r had Her love made me so high, but I abused it And here I sit all alone tonight Whiskey on the rocks and more cigarettes to light Holding on to everything I let go Hopin' I don't lose it She ain't hooked on me no more She ain't hooked on me no more

She ain't hooked on me no more The one thing that always hurt her the most Is the one thing she finally quit fightin' for She ain't hooked on me no more She ain't hooked on me no more I'm pickin' up all my bad habits again She's lettin' one go

She ain't hooked on me no more She ain't hooked on me no more I'm pickin' up all my bad habits again She's lettin' one go

Yeah, I'm pickin' up all my bad habits again She's lettin' one go
