

You Caught Me At A Bad Time

Toby Keith

I don't need this conversation
Cause I don't need to see you cry
You need one more confirmation
Like I need one more reason why.

I know this might no be the answer
Oh that you came here to get
We both know that girl is somethin'
That I'm still not over yet.

I can't go on using you
Girl in feels like I'm losin' you
A love like yours is hard to find
But you caught me at a bad time.

I knew that you'd be waiting
The night I made that desperate call
You weren't everything I needed
Just the softest place to fall.

So I'm not gonna lie to you
Just keep stringin' you along
Thought by now it'd be better
But I guess I'm not that strong.

I can't go on using you
Oh it feels like I'm losin' you
Love like yours is hard to find
But you caught me at a bad time.

A love like yours is hard to find
You Caught Me At A Bad Time.
