Everybody needs someone to cling to Everybody needs someone to call their own No one wants a love that you can see through No one wants to spend their whole life alone

Someday I know he will surely find me Someday I will have a love to call my own Then I'll have someone to lay beside me Then I'll never have to spend my nights alone

Alone, isn't where I want to be I've got so much to give, we're not supposed to live alone
Isn't how I think of me, I'm counting down the days til I can put that word away

The world is full of people who are searching and every heart is trying to find a home Just like everything I think that I'm deserving of a love that takes away the word alone

And I'm waiting in line
And I'll wait like a bird on a wire
And I wonder if that day will ever come
When love walks in to finally take me higher
Then I'll know my search for love is done
