

Lazy

Toby Lightman

Hot summer night in the city, it's really no place to be Taxicabs, running the red lights and buildings blocking out the breeze

forget about the world outside our windowpane
I pity all the suckers as they try

Let's get lazy, lazy, lay down beside me
Maybe, maybe, we'll lay through the night
I can't hold onto time but I can hold onto you We'll sing lazy, lullabies til the skies turn blue

Let's close the door to the outside and don't you let the, city in Throw off the blankets, kill all the lights and pour me some ic e over gin

Pull down all the blinds, so we can hide away Sing a lullaby for you and i

Let's get lazy, lazy, lay down beside me
Maybe, maybe, we'll lay through the night
I can't hold onto time but I can hold onto you
We'll sing lazy, lullabies til the skies turn blue

Turn off, that damn alarm cause, you ain't going anywhere Let's order in, pretend it's the weekend, it's not like anybody cares

forget about the world outside our windowpane
I pity all the suckers as they try

Let's get lazy, lazy, lay down beside me
Maybe, maybe, we'll lay through the night
I can't hold onto time but I can hold onto you
We'll sing lazy, lullabies til the skies turn blue
