

Deaf Ears

Todd Rundgren

The world we made goes up in flames
It's raining ashes
We reenact the hunger games
It's raining ashes...

Falling on deaf ears...

We pray to god our soul to keep
From raining ashes
And then we smother in our sleep
Covered in ashes
It's raining ashes

The dark is far as eyes can see
It's raining ashes
We've reached the end of history
Here come the ashes
It's raining ashes...
Falling on deaf ears...
