

Hurricanes And Suns

Tokio Hotel

Love is a game is for everyone
But this is you and me
We had a thousand lives in one
We had hurricanes and suns
Hey, don't you know
We've just begun

Come pain, come hurt
See the halo, hey hey halo
Come pain, come hurt
See the halo, hey hey halo
Hey hey hey, hey hey hey

The first in the world that understand
Are the last that feel we live
It's a melancholic time
But together we'll be fine
Hey, let's go with a smile
In to the end, in to the end

Come pain, come hurt
See the halo, hey hey halo
Come pain, come hurt
See the halo, hey hey halo
Hey hey hey, hey hey hey
See the halo, hey hey halo
Hey hey hey, hey hey hey
See the halo, hey hey halo

'Til the sun won't shine, to the end of time
We are moving alone in the halo, halo
Alive and dead, alive and dead, alive and dead
See the halo
Alive and dead, alive and dead, alive and dead
See the halo
Halo, halo, come pain, come hurt
See the halo, halo

Come, we follow the halo
Come, we follow the halo
'Til the sun won't shine, to the end of time
See the halo,halo,halo
'Til the sun won't shine, to the end of time
See the halo,halo,halo

Come pain, see the halo, hey hey halo
Come hurt, see the halo, hey hey halo
Hey hey hey
