

Love Who Loves You Back

Tokio Hotel

What's underneath the moon and stars
What's underneath our clothes we are
Hidding what we wanna share
Take my hand, I'll take you there

There's a call in the wild
There's a snake in your bed
And it's telling you something
(Listen)
Yeah, I like it like that
When you're feeling lonely
Go help yourself
Do whatever you desire

Go throw your arrows
Hit her heart
If they don't react
Love who loves you back
The perfect storm
What turns you on
You can have all that
Love who loves you back

Turn me on, turn me on, turn me on
Turn me on, turn me on
Love who loves you back
Turn me on, turn me on
Love who loves you
Turn me on, turn me on
Love who loves you back

What's real we have to squint to see
Lean in closer next to me
Count to three and lose control
If you like it let me know

There's a call in the wild
And it's telling you something
(Listen)
Yeah, I like it like that
When you're feeling lonely
Go help yourself
Do whatever you desire

Go throw your arrows
Hit her heart
If they don't react
Love who loves you back
The perfect storm
What turns you on
You can have all that

Turn me on, turn me on, turn me on
Turn me on, turn me on

Turn me on, turn me on

Some are small, some are tall
Some are born with it all
Some are in it for the kill
Some just do it for the thrill

Archers, Aim your perfect mark
And throw

Go throw your arrows
The perfect storm
You can have all that

Turn me on, turn me on, turn me on
Turn me on, turn me on
Turn me on, turn me on
Love who loves you
