

Screamin'

Tokio Hotel

I've never seen anything else
Quite like you
You look at me vacantly empty
Just stare right through

I'm such a sad, sad sight
It's such a cold, cold night

I'm screaming on the top of the world
Can you hear me
I'm screamin' from the top of the world
Can you hear me
Don't you know that
I'm screamin' from the top of the world
Don't you feel me

I'll scream till I'm bleeding
And I will crush through the ceiling
No you don't know
What I'm feeling
And that I'm dying
Trying, trying

Can you hear me
I'm screamin' from the top of the world
Can you hear me

I've analyzed everything, anything
That you do
I am physically, mentally over obsessed with you

I'm such a sad, sad sight
It's such a cold, cold night

I'm screaming on the top of the world
Can you hear me
I'm screamin' from the top of the world
Can you hear me
Don't you know that
I'm screamin' from the top of the world
Don't you feel me

I'll scream till I'm bleeding
And I will crush through the ceiling
No you don't know
What I'm feeling
And that I'm dying
Trying, trying

Can you hear me
I'm screamin' from the top of the world
Can you hear me

And I'm so close
To what I've dreamed of
But it hurts so
Yeah it hurts so

Top of the world
Top of the world

I'm screamin' on the top of the world

Top of the world

I'm screamin' on the top of the world
But I don't think I can be heard
By you, you
Could it be you never will
Could it be I have to kill
This dream that makes me I'll

I'm screaming on the top of the world
Can you hear me
I'm screamin' from the top of the world
Can you hear me
Don't you know that
I'm screamin' from the top of the world
Don't you feel me

I'll scream till I'm bleeding
And I will crush through the ceiling
No you don't know
What I'm feeling
And that I'm dying
Trying, trying

Can you hear me
I'm screamin' from the top of the world
Can you hear me
