

Tunnel Vision

Tokyo Police Club

Going to the sweet store, tell me what you want,
I'll pick up some liquor and a pack of blue mountain alright
Twenty-four seven and the lights stay on
You like a lot of people and I'll make a good drunk alright
But I got the tunnel vision, can't see the light
I just want to make it through one more night, tonight!
I just want to make it through one more night, tonight!

Even on the week nights some of my friends say
You're still in your twenties
And you're still getting paid, it's fine
Nothing is enough and gonna slip away
I might be dead tomorrow,
But tomorrow's not today, alright

'Cause I got the tunnel vision, can't see the light
I just want to make it through one more night, tonight!
I just want to make it through one more night, tonight!

I can barely move a muscle & there's still no end in sight
And i-i-i just want to make it through one more night!
So walk me home
So walk me home
So walk me home

'Cause I got the tunnel vision, can't see the light
I just want to make it through one more night, tonight!
I just want to make it through one more night!
