

Firekisses

Tom Dice

I know I am a dreamer but this is new to me
In every girl I meet I see your face
Been to all your favourite places and they didn't notice me
And one courageous moment is all it takes

"Hi, my name is Tom and you've been on my mind for way too long

And that's what I should say to her one day, sometime soon

I keep quiet, keep my distance
You don't know about my existence
My hopes are going down
As I'm throwing you firekisses

I know about desire and what it does to me
It's like I'm shutting down completely
Oh, you are all I wanted, more than anything
So why is it so hard to say?

"Hi, my name is Tom and you've been on my mind for way too long

And that's what I should say to her one day, sometime soon

I keep quiet, keep my distance
You don't know about my existence
My hopes are going down
As I'm throwing you firekisses

I keep quiet, keep my distance
You don't know about my existence
My hopes are going down
As I'm throwing you firekisses

And I'm throwing you firekisses, firekisses, firekisses, firekisses
Firekisses, firekisses, firekisses
And I'm throwing you firekisses, firekisses
