

Lalalover

Tom Helsen

There's no time
Cause I'm about to leave
You see all that I ever wanted
Was to disappear
There's no trail
That brings me back to you
There's nothing more to say
And nothing more to prove

Lalalover, lalalover
There's nothing you can pin on me
Lalalover, lalalover
I'm taking a break from all that is real

There's no time
To tell you how it feels
Is there someone I can trust
Cause I don't know what is real
Old days can cut you like a knife
I don't need you to remind me
I don't need you around
