

Road Of Hell And Sweetness

Tom Helsen

There's no surveillance and no one left to score
Said the man to the lady, are you willing to walk that road
Road of hell and sweetness, we just don't look back at all
Say, you might as well be someone

Let's see who goes down first from above
It's the mississippi-clown, he's heading straight for your Town, for nothing cause he won't bring you sweetness,
We just don't look back at all
He won't bring you sweetness we just don't look back at all

Say you might as well be someone
Say you might as well be someone
Say you might as well be someone
Say you might as well be someone

The last man at the office's been quite restless,
He's been longing for a moment alone with you