

Face Of A Loser

Tom Jones

He doesn't love you the way I do
But still he's holding onto you
He won't let you go but, baby, I know
Tonight when I look at him

I saw the face, the face of a loser
I saw the face, the face of a loser
And I know I can win

He surely knows that he's losing you
And there is nothing he can do
He must let you go, cause, baby, I know
Tonight when I look at him

I saw the face, the face of a loser
I saw the face, the face of a loser
And I know I can win

If I keep on trying, he going to let you go
If I keep on trying, I can win your love, I know

I saw the face, the face of a loser
I saw the face, the face of a loser
When I looked at him

And I know I can win
When I looked at him
And I know I can win
When I looked at him
And I know I can win
