I'm Counting on You

Tom Jones

The night is so wild And downstairs the child is sleeping, her spirit is free For more than an hour I have walked in the rain I've been wondering what she will be

But where are the heroes, where are the dreams that I had When I was young?

Am I hoping in vain, just to think she could change anything?

Well, I'm counting on you

I'm counting on you

To bring that sweet gentleness to your world and all that you do My generation is losing its way, we don't know what we're leaving for you

So may there be millions who feel like you do, oh my love

There is so much to know, there is so far to go But you are not alone When this is your world and I'm counting on you I'm counting on you

Come to me, turn to me, give me your eyes When you see the mysteries of time Here there are those who just live in the past They will never let history lie

And this sad little island is breaking my heart with its dark Shades of green
And as hard as I try I just cannot see why this should be

There is so much to know, there is so far to go But you are not alone
When this is your world and I'm counting on you

So may there be millions who feel like you do, oh my love

There is so much to know, there is so far to go But you are not alone When this is your world

There is so much to know, there is so far to go But you are not alone When this is your world and I'm counting on you Yes, I'm counting on you And I'm counting on you

I'm counting on you
Yes, I'm counting on you
