

If I Promise

Tom Jones

If I got on my knees and come crawlin' to you little girl
Would you love me once again
Cause I'll do anything to prove that I love you still
And that I'm sorry for the fool I've been Haven't slept in a month of Sundays and I know one day I'm a go nna lose my sanity
Can't stop dreamin' about you and life without you just don't m ean a thing to me
So if I promise to be a good boy and never hurt you anymore
Could things be like they were before
If I promise to be a good boy and be the way you want me to Could I still have a chance with you

Cause I don't know what made me fool enough to think That I could live without your love
I must have cried a million tears since our goodbye
Yes and misery fits me like a glove
So if I promise to be a good boy...
