

Stop Breaking My Heart

Tom Jones

I'm on the floor counting one minute more Noone to break the silence

Staring into the night all alone but that's alright It's the feeling deep inside I don't like

There is no excuse my friend
for breaking my heart
breaking my heart again
This is where our journey ends
Your breaking my heart again

Here in my bed counting the words you've said They linger in the shadows

Coming home late at night drunk again but that's alright It's the look in your eyes I don't like

for breaking my heart
breaking my heart again...
