

Everybody Eat

Tom Lehrer

Everybody eat!

Every niece and every nephew even if you're deaf you'll hear them digest.

Kiddie's by the dozen from local zoos

Someone's second cousin but God knows whose.

Everybody feed

For example there's an uncle who when he's drunk'll be a real pest.

And cousin julia is actin' childish to put it mildish.

Hey you kids I don't know who just did that but it's gross

Then al begins to smoke and tells a dirty joke when grandma's comatose.

Oh everybody's swill.

And put up with uncle gordon video recordin' everyone here.

Now they've all gone away

And we're so happy to say

They won't be back for a year.
