

Walking To Hawaii

Tom McRae

Falling feels like flying
Until you hit the ground
And everything is beautiful till you take a look around
So let it go

Turn the bow into the wave boys
I feel a storm coming in
And every bridge we build we burn
And never learn to swim
No we never learn to swim
So let it go

Lead me to the edge and watch
See how far we both can drop
Let it all just slip away
Let it fade

Well walk to hawaii
A final sunset on the waves
The perfect girl the perfect place
To watch the world go down in flames
Wouldnt that be a shame
So let it go

Lead me to the edge dont stop
Beauty always had a cost
And as the air slips from our lungs
Well sing songs of love
Oh love, oh love...
