Work 20 years and they'll take care of you They'll buy you a diamond, they'll send you on a cruise Give it all your money, give it all your time Then wake up one morning and wonder why

Chorus

Let me up - I've had enough

I believe you baby, I know you wouldn't lie Like a dog won't bark, like a bird won't fly Yeah pretty little baby, you're a weapon with eyes I know what you want, but it's a surprise Let me up - I've had enough

Yeah, yeah, be honest with me Honey am I what you thought I would be

You tell me you love me baby, you'll be true
I want to believe you, but I don't know why I do
I woke up this mornin', there was a car in the drive
I didn't recognize it, who was that guy?

(Repeat Chorus)

Yeah, yeah, yeah - I tell ya, this is not A question of humility here
