

You're Gonna Get It

Tom Petty

I don't want you, no more
Ain't gonna give any more than you give to me
I don't want you, it's too hard
Can't try any harder than you try for me

You're gonna get it babe, I should've quit it babe
But you look so good, yeah you do
You do, you do, you do, you do
To think that something might change
But I was just a fool

Go, go to somebody else like you do to me
I don't want you, can't crawl
I can't crawl any further
You never crawled for me

You're gonna get it babe, I should've quit it babe
But you look so good, yeah you do, you do
Honestly you do babe
To think that something might change
But I was just a fool

You're gonna get it, baby
You're gonna get it, baby
You're gonna get it, baby

You're gonna get it
You're gonna get it
You're gonna get it
