

Let There Be Love

Tom Tom Club

All the years since yesterday my heart still
Beats a rhythm in my chest from long ago.
Only say the word and I'll fly to be by your side.
Don't be leavin' me alone, longin' to know.

If this love's to be, I'll see it in your eyes
If there is love, I'll still be wanting you
If there's hope to dream, I'll hear it in your sighs
If there is love, I'll still be wanting you

On the streets and on the scene, every passerby
Has your face, but disappears through pourin' rain. And neon signs like omens shine, darin' me to dream Of not-forgotten promises. . . I'll never cry again.

If this love's to be, I'll see it in your eyes
If there is love, I'll still be wanting you
If there's hope to dream, I'll hear it in your sighs
If there is love, I'll still be wanting you

Never mind the tears and fears, you must believe
You still look fine'like the best wine, time has been sweet!
In your smile I still find my deepest friend

But, oh! if I can be your source of joy, I'll be complete.

If this love's to be, I'll see it in your eyes
If there is love, I'll still be wanting you
If there's hope to dream, I'll hear it in your sighs
If there is love, I'll still be wanting you
If this love's to be, I'll see it in your eyes
If there is love, I'll still be wanting you
If there's hope to dream, I'll hear it in your sighs
If there is love, I'll still be wanting you

Dum, dum, dum-da-dee-dum, dum, dum, dum. . .
Let there be love! . . .and I am watching you. . .
Dum, dum, dum-da-dee-dum, dum, dum, dum!
If there is love, then I will want you!
Dum, dum, dum-da-dee-dum, dum, dum, dum!
If there is love, then I am needing you. . . If there is love. .
Dum, dum, dum-da-dee-dum, dum, dum, dum!
Oh, I get. . . when I am watching you. . .
Ah, ah, ah, ah! I feel love. . . when I'm lovin' you
