

Train Song

Tom Waits

Broke down in East St. Louis
On the Kansas City Line
Drunk up all my money
That I borrowed every time

And I fell down at the derby
Night's as black as a crow
It was a train took me away from here
But a train can bring me home