

Places

Toni Braxton

I'm reaching out for you, but it's just an empty bed Dreamin' that you were here, oh how quickly I forget That You comin' through the door, is just an echo in my heart
And I try to pretend it's over, but it never gets verified

Chorus:

Cos it just don't feel right when I know you're not there
And the sound of goodbye still follows me everywhere
And I just can't move on, but I feel my heart stop and stare And the only thing I see are places you used to be yeah you used to be yeah took all your photographs, and I hid them all away But each time I close my eyes, I'm staring at your face

I open the closet door, still a hint of your cologne
And I try to pretend it's over, but you're everywhere I go

Chorus:

I still sleep in the shirt
you left on the chair
I still can hear you walk up the stairs
I still can hardly breathe
Each time I forget that you're not here with me

Chorus:
