

My Favourite Thing

Tonight Alive

I fall at the thought of us falling apart
But I swore never to use my head before I use my heart

And you'll keep me breathing
Grant me peace through the night
My dear, I hope your dreams are as sweet as real life

Cause this is my favourite thing by far
And you define everything I've ever know but why?

Do you believe in fate?
Do you believe in destiny?
Would you believe me if I told you, you complete me?

I don't say this lightly
So don't take this lightly

This is my favourite thing by far
And you define everything I've ever known but why?
Why me? When you could've had anybody?
Hi, nice to meet you, was it nice to meet me too?

Don't tell me the things that you think I want to hear
Just tell me the truth, and the whole truth,
Your thoughts and your hopes and dreams and your fears
Cause' I don't have time to waste
If all that you're looking for is the chase
Don't let me be just another mistake
But still it's a chance that I'm willing to take for you
For you - it's all for you

This is my favourite thing by far
And you define everything I've ever known but why?
Why me? when you could've had anybody?
Hi, nice to meet you, was it nice to meet me too?

This is my favourite thing by far
And you define everything I've ever known but why?
Why me? when you could've had anybody?
