

A Rainy Day

Tony Bennett

You like the blue and the sun with a glare
Give me a shade of gray
For when the storm clouds were hovering there
My future came my way

When there's a shower or when there's a squall
I'm more than gay for after all

A rainy day was when I met her
A rainy day, there's nothing better
You see, it happened, we were sharing a taxi
It was a rainy day

Of course, at first we both were formal
But soon we veered around to normal
And then we sort of spent the day in a taxi
It was a rainy day

What I sought long in vain
I had got in the rain that day, my day
As we wove through the crowd
And she drove every cloud away, away

We fell in love and weren't guessing
Now we spend the time in blessing
The chance, romance that cam to us in a taxi
All in a rainy day

Tell him it was

We fell in love and weren't guessing
Now we spend the time in blessing
The chance, romance that came to us in a taxi
All on a rainy day, all on a rainy day
