

Gone

Tony Iommi

In a dream I had a final vision
How come you just want to be my friend
How come?
Will you ever have to justify
The hidden meaning in your time again

I'm gone, gone just like the past
Because I'm gone
And you won't be the last cos I'll be strong
Now you can hear my voice
Because I'm gone

In an ordinary complication
I come to my realisation
How come?
Well you came to me with velvet skin
How come I did let you in?
How come?

I'm gone, gone just like the past
Because I'm gone
And you won't be the last cos I'll be strong
Now you can hear my voice
Because I'm gone

Still it breaks me down inside
As I walk through the fire
I am a stronger man
Nothing will change me at all, you lie

In a dream I had a final vision
How come you just want to be my friend
How come?

I'm gone, gone just like the past
Because I'm gone
And you won't be the last cos I'll be strong
Now you can hear my voice
Because now I'm gone

I'm gone, gone just like the past
Because I'm gone
And you won't be the last cos I'll be strong
Now you can hear my voice
Because I'm gone
