

I'm Not The Same Man

Tony Iommi

Between the colour of this moment
I fail to stop the hands of time
I lay to rest where am I going
I've come this far to change me mind
I know there is no lie to break
I know that I have made mistakes

Beneath the symbol of my conscience
I stand alone for what is right
My body heals that once was broken
I make amends to cure my sight
And I will never look away
And I will face another day

I'm not the same man
I'll never break that vow again
I'm past the pain
Cos I'm not the same man

Surrounded by a code of silence
There comes a time to turn the page
And I won't give my soul to no one
Now is the time to come of age

I'm not the same man
I'll never break that vow again
I'm past the pain
Cos I'm not the same man

I'm not the same man
I'll never break that vow again
I'm past the pain
Cos I'm not the same man

I'm not the same man
I'll never break that vow again
I'm past the pain
Cos I'm not the same man

I'm not the same man
I'll never break that vow again
I'm past the pain
Cos I'm not the same man

Same man, same man
I'm not the same
I'm not the same
