

Maiden Of My Madness

Tony Lucca

I can't eat, I don't sleep
Do my best just to keep up
With all of the magic you do
Girl, what'd you do?
I can't laugh, I won't cry
Paralyzed, yes am I.
What's this gauntlet you're dragging me through?
Tell me you're through

Waiting it out I doubt
I'll find my way to the door
Running away, you say
Only makes you want me more

Once again under my skin
Making me wonder again
I tremble like thunder
And she becomes the maiden of my madness

I can't think, I won't say
How my mind fades away
When you dance as you do in my head
I'm silent instead

Waiting it out I doubt
I'll find my way to the door
Running away, you say
Only makes you want me more

Once again under my skin
Making me wonder again
I tremble like thunder
And she becomes the maiden of my madness

I'm ashamed, I'm afraid
All my courage betrayed
By the fever of love gone insane
I'm alive, I'm on fire
Wondering why I desire
This behavior I know I can't explain

Running away, you say
Only makes you want me more

Once again under my skin
Making me wonder again
I tremble like thunder
And she becomes the maiden of my madness

Once again under my skin
Making me wonder again
I tremble like thunder
And she becomes the maiden of my madness

Once again under my skin
Making me wonder again

And she becomes the maiden of my madness

The maiden of my madness
