She's True

Tony Lucca

She dances around Laughs up and down As she tickles my mind

She moans when we kiss Sweet tenderness She's the passionate kind

She offers all she can and then She gives me all she's got Ready or not but she's

True to herself And she's true to me To me

She'll dress like a clown She paints on her frown How she does what she will

She tears all the tips Off her cigarettes Smokes just to keep herself still

She's not afraid to be afraid And strong enough to know why Maybe she'll cry but she's

True to herself And she's true to me To me

To me she sings like the day "Morning, good morning The sun's come out, why don't we play?"

To me she cries Like a child With no bed time story

The story's over Meanwhile, she stays true So true

She offers all she can and then She gives me all she's got Ready or not but she's

True to herself And she's true to me To me, to me

Yeah, she's true to herself And she's true to me To me
