Cry Myself To Death

Tony Martin

I stand on the edge of time, where nobody knows me,
 You've spoken so many lies, they're talking about me,

 I needed love but you didn't want me hanging 'round,
 Leave me alone and save your breath,
 I'm gonna cry myself to death.

 These drugs they don't work no more, need something to free me
 My gun ain't the right bore, stop talking down to me,

 I needed love but you didn't want me hanging 'round,
 Leave me alone and save your breath,
 I'm gonna cry myself to death.

 You tell me that I am blind, you don't even know me,
 You say there's a good side to life, well why don't you show m e,

 I needed time but you couldn't wait to work it out,
 Leave me alone and save your breath,
 I'm gonna cry myself to death.
 I needed love but you didn't want me hanging 'round,
 Leave me alone and save your breath,
 I'm gonna cry myself to death.
