

Guardian Angel

Tony Martin

I believe there's a Guardian Angel, oh Angel,
I believe save my soul, my soul,
I believe, so take me higher, oh higher,
Take me where I need to go.

Trust in this, believe in me that I can save you from your Hell,
Your soul is my domain, it's safe with me.
Look before you reach and touch reality is yours to keep,
I don't need much of you but your trust I need.

Tonight, I'll be your Guardian Angel,
I will save you from your fears,
I'll be your Guardian Angel,
If you walk with me.

Something screams, inside you turn, behind you something reaches out,
But I will be there in your darkest hour.

Tonight, I'll be your Guardian Angel,
I will save you from your fears,
I'll be your Guardian Angel,
If you walk with me, yeah.
I'll be your Angel.

If I fail, you'll realise the one you seek, is in your mind.
Who never leaves you when you walk alone.

Tonight I'll be your Guardian Angel.
If I save you from your fears,
I'll be your Guardian Angel,
If you walk with me.
I'll be your Guardian Angel,
If I save you from your fears.
I'll be your Guardian Angel,
If you walk with me.
I'll be your Angel, Guardian Angel.
