

Relax

Tony Martin

From here, I stand, I wait for deliverance to you,
I'm yours, and all I bring is love.
Our time has come,
I know there'll be no more tears to drown me out,
Hear me, hear me, hear me now.

Relax, don't fight, I'll soothe your troubled mind,
In time you'll see, my love will set you free.

Here, right here, right now,
Won't you touch me baby I need,
To drink, your soul to set me free.

Relax, don't fight, I'll soothe your troubled mind,
In time, you'll see, my love will set you free.
Relax, don't fight, I'll soothe your troubled mind,
In time you'll see, my love will set you free, yeah.

Relax, don't fight, I'll soothe your troubled mind,
In time, you'll see, my love will set you free.
Relax, don't fight, I'll soothe your troubled mind,
In time, you'll see, my love will set you free.
Relax, don't fight, I'll soothe your troubled mind,
In time you'll see, my love will set you free.
