

Wherever You Go

Tony Martin

When I lie you down with me
I can feel you breathing
When I feel you shudder and shake
I imagine what you're dreaming

I wanna come with you
To the land where you are

I can't believe we came so far
I can't believe the luck I was given
And just to hold you in my arms
The things I would have given

And I will feel your kiss wherever I go
And I will come with you wherever you go
Ever you go
