Tony Yayo, Superstar Jay...
"Swine Flu Part 2"!
Enter Queens at your own risk!
Ha-ha-ha-ha-ha!

There's a stillness in the air...
In the neighborhood where two blocks seem empty.
You can hear the wind whip through the playground usually crowded with children.
Signs on school doors: "Closed because of swine flu".
This is Ground Zero for swine flu here in New York.
Queens... has more than half the swine flu cases in the country

Swine flu breeds in pigs... spread then from person to person.
Right now New York City is virtually shut down!

Schools are closed.

This is a virus the world has really never seen before.

Libraries and museums... shut down.
Residents wearing masks!
