Tony Yayo, Superstar Jay...
"Swine Flu Part 2"!
Enter Queens at your own risk!
Ha-ha-ha-ha-ha!
```

There's a stillness in the air...

In the neighborhood where two blocks seem empty.

You can hear the wind whip through the playground usually crowd ed with children.

Signs on school doors: "Closed because of swine flu".

This is Ground Zero for swine flu here in New York.

Queens... has more than half the swine flu cases in the country $\boldsymbol{.}$

Swine flu breeds in pigs... spread then from person to person. Right now New York City is virtually shut down!

Schools are closed.

This is a virus the world has really never seen before.

Libraries and museums... shut down. Residents wearing masks!
