

Scarlet's Walk

Tori Amos

if you're a thought
you will want me
to think you
and i did invite
a guest up until you announced
you had moved in
"what do you plan to do with all your freedom?"
the new sheriff said,
quite proud of his badge
"you must admit the land is now in good hands" yes, time will tell that you just life your lamp

i will follow her on her path scarlet's walk through the voilets just tell your gods for me all debts are off this year they're free to leave
yes they're free to leave leaving terra leaving terra

there was a time
when i thought
that her destiny
should've been mine
big brave nation
but instead her medicine
now forgotten
"what do you plan to do with all your stories"
the new sheriff said,
we'll weave them through every rocket's red glare and huddled masses
you just lift your lamp
i will follow.
if you're a thought
you will want me
to think you
and i did and did.
