

Winter's Carol

Tori Amos

A winter's carol
First song of the robin
A winter's carol
I go through the land
And I can hear it
Ringing out
Ringing out
From pine to oak
Bringing out with the December snow
Ringing out
A gift of old Wrapped in ribbons of gold
For the whole world
For the whole world
The summer queen
has been in darkness
The summer queen
has been in darkness
the summer queen
surrenders to this
To him she reveals the secrets
To him she reveals the Wine Ham secrets for a time rejoice
Fire and frosted marriage
Through a midwinter clearing a forest greets the snowy evening Year after year, the holly king passes the torch as it was intended
through a midwinter clearing
a final kiss and a new beginning kiss on queen wearing his wreath soon with the sun she will reascend
through a midwinter clearing
the forest greets a snowy evening with wands of yew, the holly king
passes the torch as it was intended
passes the torch as it was intended
A winter's carol
the song of the robin
the sun is reborn
from the starry heavens
A winter's carol
echoes the sound of wonder
ringing out
Ringing out,
Bringing out, with the December snow
Ringing out
A gift of old
For the whole world
For the whole world
