

Kid I Used To Know

Tori Kelly

Mmm, yeah

Lost in this desert
Feels like a thousand years
Looking for water
Swear there was an ocean here (Mmm)

How do I get back where I came from
When everything has all changed so much?
Feeling the pressure now
It's tying my heart down

I'm missing the empty skies of my youth
Never a cloud only ever bright blues
Just want that peace again
But the chaos is closing in

I know that I can't ever go back to the world where life was only
Playing, dreaming, dancing on my own
I keep trying to find that fearless heart that's running wild with
Nothing weighing heavy on my soul
Looking for the kid I used to know

Oh-oh (Yeah)

All of these voices
It's hard to tune them out
(Yeah-yeah, yeah)
I should accept it
It ain't so simple now
(No, no, yeah)

I wanna say whatever I want
Not even think about falling in love
Chasing the rainbows
And where did the time go?

Yeah, I know
That I can't ever go back to the world where life was only
Playing, dreaming, dancing on my own
I keep trying to find that fearless heart that's running wild with
Nothing weighing heavy on my soul
Looking for the kid I used to know

Oh-oh-oh, oh-oh-oh, oh-oh-oh
Yeah-yeah
The kid I used to know
Oh-oh-oh, oh-oh-oh, oh-oh-oh
Yeah-yeah

Ooh, ooh, ooh
Oh, back when I
Learned to fly
Colored outside the lines
Oh-oh

No, I can't ever go back to the world where life was only

Playing, dreaming, dancing on my own
I keep trying to find that fearless heart that's running wild
With nothing weighing heavy on my soul
Looking for the kid I used to know

I used to know
The kid I used to know
